

Kiel, 16. December 2011

idealog: Prime Minister's Science Prizes doled out in praise of climate change, eyes and earthquakes

Newzeeland project got a price from the prime minister. They work on oceanic CDR.

"The Prime Minister's Science Prizes, which deal in both glory and cold hard cash from a pool of $1 million, have been presented in Auckland today."

Link

See also article in The Dominion Post.

Linked to: peace research

0 Comments

Add a comment

You need to be logged in to add comments.

